Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Buckingham united by letter Thursday with the Christian Church.

At Millersburg, Peal Collier seriously wounded Henry Slick Clay while, it is alleged, the latter was stealing coal from the Stewart & Collier yards.

The Rev. Joseph McAllister is seriously ill at his home at Laurel, Greenup county. He is 82 years of age and has been an active Minister in the Baptist Church for the past sixty years.

A farm house occupied by Mr. John Ernst on Mr. Wall Smoot's farm near Tuckahoe was destroyed by fire Thursday, starting from a defective flue, or by a spark falling on the roof. The loss amounts to $800 or $1,000 on building and contents. The building was insured for $340 in the Farmers Mutual Aid Association.

THE PERUCHI-BELDINI CO.

The Lexington Leader of October 15th says: The Peruchi-Beldini Company opened a three nights engagement at the Opera-house last night with a most excellent play, "The Clay Baker." Mr. Peruchi's company this season is perhaps stronger than he has ever had under his own management and they gave an intelligent presentation of a most beautiful heart story. Of the specialties between the acts the electrical pantomime by Gypzane and Roma was the star feature. The great Lynch, on the swinging wire, Low J. Fullerton in Dutch songs and dances and the inimitable Peruchi in a budget of fun, completes the list. At the Opera-house, matinee this afternoon in "The Clay Baker" and tonight in "The Sleeping City." Ladies free tonight under the usual conditions. Buy seats now at Ray's.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies, but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets—Holley Bros., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Amid the Labor Troubles

There is one class of servants with which nobody has any trouble. They are the Life Insurance companies. Wages (premiums) are fixed to begin with and returns are always better than guaranteed. Here is the record of a faithful servant.

The late Thomas S. Kennedy, of Crescent Hill, Ky., left as part of his estate an insurance policy in The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York for $10,000, issued May 20, 1900. It is said that the amount of $6,000 had accumulated in this policy, making the total paid by the company $16,000. The last premium paid by Mr. Kennedy amounted to $6,400, making the return over cost $10,000.12 (From Louisville (Ky.) Times, Nov. 27, 1903.)

In writing for terms for a policy of this kind, state what you would like to receive in cash at the end of limited payment period, amount you would like your beneficiary to receive in event of your death, and give your age.

A Well Dressed Man!

Makes you stop and consider the very important point, "Do I look like him, or am I shabby?" I wonder what it cost him to look like that? NOW LISTEN: If he lacks good judgment it costs him a lot of money. If he places himself in our hands it doesn't. We endeavor to place every man that deals with us under obligations to us—and then he starts out to cancel that obligation by bringing in a friend, who becomes a customer, and who in turn starts out to bring his friends—and so on.

How do we place a customer under obligations to us? We give him all that his money calls for and more than he expects, consider his whims and feelings and pocket-book. He's pleased, and he can't help telling his friends. Thus the good word goes on.
